Incident Summary: On April 19, 2022 at approximately 4:00 p.m., Columbus Police Officers were in the 1400 Block of Courtright Road when they observed a 2015 GMC Yukon which had been reported stolen. As officers exited their cruiser the known juvenile driver of the stolen vehicle accelerated his vehicle intentionally striking one of the officers, pinning him between the cruiser and the suspect vehicle. After which the suspect fled the area in the stolen SUV. A short while later, officers located the vehicle in the area of Curnard Road and Seabrook Avenue, unoccupied. Officers were able to locate the suspect at his home, where he was taken into custody without incident. The injured officer was transported to a local area hospital in stable condition and is expected to make a full recovery. The juvenile suspect was arrested and charged with numerous felony offenses.

This incident is still under investigation.
